Min Min is an unusual light phenomenon that has often been reported in outback Australia.. Stories about the lights can be found in Aboriginal myths predating European settlement and have since become part of wider Australian folklore. Indigenous Australians hold that the number of sightings has increased in conjunction with the ingression of Europeans into the outback.

A group of geologists have drawn my attention to the 2010/2013 Geological Society of London's statement on climate change and asked if I could arrange an on-line discussion about it. The lead author of the statements is Dr Colin Summerhayes who has participated as guest blogger and commenter on Energy Matters before. And so I asked if I could reproduce the statements on these pages and ...
