Author's Comment. This is a personal site in that it provides the publications on the history of photography of only one person. However it is appropriate here to at least add the personal reason why this site is named as Midley.

Midley History of early Photography

A self-portrait is a representation of an artist that is drawn, painted, photographed, or sculpted by that artist. Although self-portraits have been made since the earliest times, it is not until the Early Renaissance in the mid-15th century that artists can be frequently identified depicting themselves as either the main subject, or as important characters in their work.
